

Greek to GCSE (J.Taylor, Bloomsbury)

Chapter 1	Present tense indicative 1 st declension eta variant nominative and accusative singular 2 nd declension masculine nominative and accusative singular Definite article Negatives Prepositions
Chapter 2	1 st and 2 nd declension nominative and accusative plural Present tense of εἶμι 1 st declension alpha variant Time with accusative case 2 nd declension neuter nouns
Chapter 3	1 st and 2 nd declension nouns all cases Prepositions Genitive sandwich Imperative Adverbs Cases taken by verbs Infinitive Adjectives Particles Future tense Imperfect tense and Imperfect εἶμι Questions
Chapter 4	1 st Aorist and 2 nd Aorist 2 nd declension feminine nouns 1 st declension masculine nouns 1 st declension mixed variant Compound verbs
Chapter 5	3 rd declension nouns Interrogative and indefinite pronoun Personal pronouns and adjectives (I, me, my) singular Present participle εἶμι
Chapter 6	Present participles active voice Uses of the definite article Same and Self, and αὐτον as pronoun Aorist participle πας, πασα, παν Numbers Time with genitive and dative cases Personal pronouns and adjectives plural Dative of possession Future participle

	Meaning of participles
Chapter 7	Present passive Demonstratives Imperfect passive Comparison of adjectives and adverbs Relative clauses Root aorists Result clauses with indicative
Chapter 8	Middle voice and deponent verbs Aorist middle and passive Future middle and passive Genitive absolute Active verbs with middle futures The other εἶμι Reflexive pronouns Third person possessives Future infinitives
Chapter 9	Third declension adjectives μεγας and πολυς Epsilon contract verbs Nouns and adjectives with epsilon contraction Futures with epsilon contraction Aspect – aorist imperative and infinitive Indirect commands Impersonal verbs
Chapter 10	Indirect statements - with ὅτι - with infinitive - with participle δωσω and ἔδωκα (I will give, I gave) Result clauses with infinitive Alpha contract verbs Irregular comparatives and superlatives Direct and indirect questions
Chapter 11	Subjunctive Mood (Present and Aorist) - use of subjunctive with prohibition - use of subjunctive with purpose clauses Conditional sentences - Future open - Past closed Optative Mood (Present, Future and Aorist) - use of optative in purpose clauses - use of optative in indirect statement and question